

Resorts Reopening In Upper Monmouth

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
SABRIGT, N. J., June 3.—Upper Monmouth county resorts—the Highlands, Rumson, Seabright, Monmouth Beach and other places about the Shrewsbury River—are swinging into the season with open clubhouses and a sports program that has as its most notable features three weeks of international polo at Rumson, the annual tennis classic at Seabright and several golf tournaments.

The wedding in St. George's Episcopal Church to-day of Mr. Edward Horman Van Sicken and Miss Virginia Hay drew together many of the fashionable folk of the Rumson colony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Charles L. Gonth, assisted by the Rev. Dutton Dale.

Among Miss Hay's bridesmaids were Mrs. Hubert Bassett and Miss Louise Hallock of New York, Mr. Van Sicken is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Sicken. His home is at 853 Seventh avenue, New York city.

The golf course of the Rumson Country Club is being reconditioned and several of the holes are temporarily out of play. All of the greens will be in first class condition shortly, however. The Rumson Club will open within the next fortnight. The Beach Club here will not have its formal opening until June 21, coincident with the opening of the New Peninsula House, under the management this year of Hugh J. Flynn. The clubhouse has been open since Monday, however, for tennis, bathing and swimming.

The Monmouth Beach Inn opened for the Memorial Day vacation and gave several entertainments. Among the New York visitors at the ball on Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Delmasse, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Grellon, Mr. and Mrs. David Stone, Mr. Martin Stone, Miss Dorothy Rosenberg, Mr. Paul Domhek, Mrs. Domhek, Miss Lilian Spero and Mr. and Mrs. M. Domhek. The Puritan Club, that comprises twelve New York families and their friends, opened its big house at the Rumson road and First street, Rumson, for the last week-end. Among those at the club are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Arne, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Arne, Miss Edith Arne, Miss Maybelle Arne, Miss Grace Arne, Miss Dorothy Schwartz, Mr. Philip R. Arne, Miss Josephine Mullin, Miss Anne Hart, Mr. Malcolm Lincoln, Mr. John Abrams, Mr. Kenneth Woodruff and Mr. Arthur Oberg.

The Shrewsbury River is again colorful with the scores of canoes, sailing and other craft that skim its waters each day.

Each community makes its special appeal. Here are sumptuous hotels and modest boarding houses; and summer homes to rent of all sizes and prices, from the modest little dwelling near the beach to the pretentious villa of spacious halls and velvet lawns.

Here lies a chain of the world's famous resorts, big and little, linked together for twenty miles along the great Atlantic's shore within two hours' motor ride of New York. Here is the country, the woods and hills and waving fields. Here nature has been lavish with little rivers, lakes and streams, and here a hundred million dollars has been spent on man made beauty spots—ten miles of ocean boardwalk, theaters, shops, surf bathing, fishing, canoeing, sailing, motoring, eight golf courses, polo and cross country riding; pleasures and recreations to lure the young and satisfy the old.
